ITINERARY IN DETAIL

DAY 1: ARRIVAL IN HANOI
Arrive in the capital city of Hanoi with a warm welcome after passing through customs. Transfer to your hotel to kick off an afternoon of exploring Hanoi, a bustling, history-rich city traversed by a number of lakes. Overnight at Apricot Hotel.

DAY 2: HANOI’S OLD QUARTER
Dive into Hanoi’s diverse neighborhoods, sample new foods, and experience life like a local. Start the day at Hoan Kiem Lake, where groups of people can be found practicing tai chi and aerobics in the early morning – you’re free to join in if you like! Explore Ngoc Son Temple, situated in the middle of Hoan Kiem Lake, before walking to a charming traditional coffee shop to sample a Vietnamese classic: Cà phê sữa đá (iced coffee). If you’re feeling more adventurous, try the local delicacy known as “egg coffee,” a fusion of egg yolk, sugar, condensed milk, and coffee. After coffee, stop in at a street food spot for bánh mì, a typical baguette sandwich filled with pickled carrot and radish, super-flavorful grilled meat, and an assortment of herbs. With a full belly and a slight caffeine buzz, wander deep into Hanoi’s Old Quarter for a walking tour of Hanoi’s French architecture. As the morning comes to a close, visit Huu Tiep Lake, better known as “B-52 Lake,” where the wreckage from a US B-52 bomber is visible.

At noon, return to the Old Quarter to explore the iconic, thousand-year-old Temple of Literature. Vietnam’s first university was established within this temple in order to educate Vietnam’s royalty, mandarins, and members of the elite. The university functioned for 700 years, and its gardens and well-preserved architecture offer a fascinating glimpse into Vietnam’s past. Finish the day’s exploration with a tour of the railway tracks of Hanoi. Your guide will lead you on a walk along the railway tracks to witness daily life interacting with the train’s schedule. This area of the city is a photographer’s dream, rich with pop-up stalls, friendly locals, and colorful alleyway vendors selling just about everything under the sun. Relax with an evening beer at the quintessential Bia Hoi, where you can sample the local draft brew. Note: On today’s tour, you’ll sample many street specialties, so we recommend avoiding breakfast at the hotel this day! Overnight at Apricot Hotel.

Driving time: 2 hours

Shuttle to UNESCO World Heritage Area Ha Long Bay, home to the world’s largest marine karst landscape. Drive northeast of Hanoi to board a wooden junk built in the style of old Vietnamese court vessels (featuring sails, a wide transom, and a rectangular superstructure) to explore the bay’s nearly 2,000 islets. Weave through the majestic bay and Cat Ba National Park to take in the grandeur of one of Vietnam’s most celebrated destinations. Explore floating fishing villages, take a kayak out for a paddle, or swim in the bay’s warm water. As the sun sets over the bay, head back to the boat and relax. Dinner will be served with local seafood and then you can choose to enjoy a drink from the bar or experience squid fishing, before going to bed. Overnight on Orchid Cruise.

DAY 4: HA LONG BAY - HUE

Wake to the astonishing landscape of Ha Long Bay, take in breathtaking views of the bay as you cruise leisurely back to the harbor. Disembark boat and meet your guide for the drive to Hanoi airport for your flight to Hue. Overnight at Pilgrimage Village.

DAY 5: HUE – BIKING TO VILLAGES

Cycle around Sinh village along countryside lanes to Thanh Tien Village which is famous for paper flowers used for worship purposes and try making unique flowers. Later, board the boat to downstream Perfume River, refresh with wild nature and local life on river banks.

Disembark the boat at Toa Kham to enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. In the afternoon, visit the Citadel of Hue, which was badly damaged during the Tet offensive of 1968. Established as the capital of unified Vietnam in 1802, Hue was not only the political but also the cultural and religious center under the Nguyen dynasty until 1945. Hue was declared a UNESCO World Heritage in 1993. Overnight at Pilgrimage Village.

DAY 6: DRIVE TO HOI AN – FISHING VILLAGE
Driving time: 2.5 hours

Depart for Hue with your guide on a drive along the National Highway 1 through breathtaking Hai Van Pass, the highest and longest pass in Vietnam on your way to Hoi An. En route stop at Lăng Cô Beach located on the foot of Hai Van Mountain. Lăng Cô Bay is a famous area with impressive scenery combing the forested mountains pouring into soft, white sand and the clear blue sea. Embark on a boat with some local fishermen to learn everything about local life on the lagoon. The surrounding lagoon is very clean and is home to a lot of crabs, snappers, red mullets, grouper, shrimp, and squid.
First stop to discover their fishing post, watch demonstration of the local fishing technique, then continue by boat to visit the oyster farm of the family. Have a delicious fresh seafood lunch in an authentic stilt house above the water prepared by the family and enjoy an unforgettable moment with them, in the middle of the lagoon and surrounded by amazing landscape of clear water and mountains.

After lunch, continue along the National Highway 1 through the breathtaking Hai Van Pass. The pass, which once formed the boundary between the kingdoms of Đại Việt and Champa, also forms a boundary between the climates of northern and southern Vietnam. The Hai Van Pass is the highest and longest pass in Vietnam, with the North-South National Highway zigzagging through it for almost 12 miles. On arrival to hotel in Hoi An and enjoy the rest of the day at your own leisure. Overnight at Almanity Resort.

DAY 7: COUNTRYSIDE BIKING OR COOKING CLASS

Hop on a bike and start exploring the hidden passageways and winding alleyways of Hoi An, stopping to photograph the iconic Japanese bridge in the historic district. Continue on to the southern villages of Quang Nam Province to visit a local family making Banh Beo, a common breakfast staple in the traditional method. Pedal past rice fields and vegetable farms along small canals and waterways towards a wooden boat-building site. Your final stops include a traditional mat weaving shop and a family distillery where rice wine has been produced in the same manner for generations. Of course, samples are provided if you wish to try. It’s a short ride from here to the local ferry for a trip back to town. Once dockside, it’s a short 5-minute ride through alleyways back to the meeting point and your hotel. Enjoy the rest of the day free to explore Hoi An’s shops or return to your hotel for spa time until your evening tour.

Continue on to try banh trang phoi suong, similar to spring rolls and typically eaten with Vietnam's standard fresh herbs and vegetables and paired with boiled pork. Then head towards the War Museum, one of Vietnam’s most popular museums which primarily exhibit the American phase of the Vietnam War.

DAY 11: PHNOM PENH
This morning with your guide visit Pshar Kandal, Phnom Penh’s oldest market to enjoy some local delights such as mi char (fried noodle), sachkor ang (BBQ beef) with papaya salad, and various small traditional snacks made from rice and coconut juice cooked in clay pots. Continue on to try some banh srung, a small noodle dish with coconut milk and spring roll slices, as well as chek ktis, a sweet dessert. After breakfast walk to Phnom Penh’s old French quarter, home to a selection of fine colonial era architecture including Belle Epoque and Art Deco designs. Walk to Cambodia’s largest market and a Phnom Penh landmark, Psah Thmey. This amazing art deco building built in 1937 by French architect Louis Chauchon was the biggest market in Asia when it opened. The four wings of this gigantic yellow dome are teeming with stalls that sell goods ranging from gold and silver, antique coins, money exchange, men’s and women’s apparel, and countless other products. Feel free to take some time to shop or even meet with a traditional Cambodian fortune teller and have your fortune told if you wish. After touring in Central market, return to your hotel by tuk tuk to freshen up before your afternoon tour.

This afternoon visit the Tuol Sleng Prison, housed in a high school, to glimpse the devastating actions that prevailed during Cambodia’s ultra-radical Marxist movement. This excursion may prove distressing for some; it is however an important piece of Cambodia’s recent past. After, take an excursion to Choeng Ek, the site of a former orchard where more than 17,000 civilians were killed and buried in mass grave by victims of the Khmer Rouge between 1975 and 1979; also known as the "killing fields,"- located just outside the city. Return to your hotel and relax at your own leisure. Overnight La Rose Suite.

DAY 12: FLY SIEM REAP
This morning depart on traditional cyclo tour (similar to a rickshaw) through the heart of Phnom Penh. Cycle to the holy site of Wat Phnom where a 14th century stupa and a small pagoda stands. It is the tallest religious structure in the city. Continue along the riverside promenade, stopping at the Royal Palace and the Silver Pagoda. This is one of the best places in all of Cambodia where objects embodying the brilliance of the Khmer civilization can still be viewed; continue to visit the National Museum with its huge collection of Khmer sculpture and artifacts recovered from Angkor. Later this afternoon transfer to the airport for your onward departure flight to Siem Reap. Upon arrival transfer to the hotel and relax the rest of the day. Overnight at Jaya House River Park.
Day 13: Angkor Wat

Wake before sunrise and depart for the temple complex of Angkor Wat, the largest and most breathtaking monument in Cambodia. Angkor Wat, built in the twelfth century as the funerary temple for Suryavarman II, never fails to stun the first-time or repeat visitor with its immense scale, surreal bas-reliefs, and unbelievable level of detail. Explore this marvelous structure in the morning, when fewer visitors are at the monument, before returning to your hotel for breakfast.

Re-enter by the southern gate of Angkor Thom to explore the temples of Bayon, Baphoun, Phimean Akas, the Royal Enclosure, the terraces of Elephants, and the Leper King. After a revitalizing lunch, drive to Ta Phrom, a haunting, exotic vine-clad temple shrouded by overgrown trees. Perch on one of the temples to soak up a lovely sunset, a fitting finale to a spectacular day. Overnight at Jaya House River Park.

Day 14: Banteay Srey – Kampong Kleang

Explore Banteay Srey, a temple outside the main area of Angkor Wat, this tiny 10th-century Hindu temple dedicated to the god Shiva is celebrated for its beautifully carved walls. For many years, it was closed to visitors because of its remote location and proximity to Khmer Rouge activity.

Near Banteay Srey, visit the Cambodian Landmine Museum Relief Facility (CLMMRF), an organization that provides education and support for dozens of at-risk youth and landmine-affected children rescued by the facility’s associated NGO. In Cambodia, efforts at clearing mines around Angkor Wat and the major tourist sites have been successful; however, millions of mines remain buried, impacting the lives and daily safety of the Cambodian people. This facility is much more than a place to show artifacts – its services help the many children that have suffered overwhelming hardships, serving as a place of healing for bodies, hearts, and minds through love, support, and education.

After lunch at a local restaurant, head to the incredible village of Kampong Kleang, where houses sit on 30-foot-tall stilts surrounded by water during the wet season. Watch local fishermen demonstrate their inventive fishing techniques and speak with students in the local school who will be as interested to hear about your life back home as you are to learn about theirs! Take in a ravishing sunset in the late afternoon as you drift across Tonle Sap Lake by boat. After returning to your hotel, you’ll have time to explore Siem Reap during your final night in Cambodia. Overnight at Jaya House River Park.
